The Government has issued a legal notice to the United Patriots of Tamil Eelam (UPTe), warning them that their activities may cause “disturbance to the public”, thereby subjecting them to a fine of Rs.5 million. The Government’s legal notice follows UPTe’s announcement on 11 September that it was siding with Bharat Militancy. The Government sent a notice to the U.P.T.E.’s call centre in New Delhi, which it linked to the group, to explain its position. The notice was also issued to the group’s external arms. The Government’s warning follows UPTe’s statement that it was siding with Bharat Militancy, and that it would be holding a rally on 13 September.
