Two cases of severe aortic regurgitation with left ventricular enlargement, are presented. One patient showed normalization of ventricular size and function after paracoronary aorto-coronary bypass. The other patient, who could not undergo surgical treatment, showed a dilated, isolated left ventricle with severe left ventricular hypertrophy, despite good quality systolic function. After four years, the ventricular size and function had normalized.Today, as in just about every year, the NHL goes through a fairly uneventful draft. Teams don't make any bold picks. Very few traded selections for future draft picks. Only the league's worst teams are given the chance to draft at least one player who could end up being a future NHL superstar. This

You can contact me directly at I m part time developer. I m looking to work with good people on good projects. I aim to be as helpful as I can in guiding people through the process, giving a high level of support, coding and testing, and explanation, with mentoring at times. I need to be able to deliver on what I say. I dont rely on hitting targets, or milestones, and I will work from first principles. I am flexible. I charge by the hour not by the days. I dont like being hurried along on projects. I like to take the time and do things properly. I will not always agree with my clients. As a contractor I dont like to be seen as a skilled worker at regular hourly rates, I find I will be ignored if this is what I am expected to do. I want to be paid accurately and with discretion. I will give high attention to the detail. Flexibility and flexibility. And above all I want to help. I have extensive experience of web development. My background is primarily PHP but I have a great working knowledge of Java,.Net, JavaScript, CSS, HTML, and AJAX. JS .Net Java HTML5 CSS3 PHP MySQL PHP Python Ruby Grails SQL Server T-

SQL I also have experience with C, C++, C#, Delphi, Dev C++, SQL and SQL server. I have extensive experience with relational database, and SQL Server database experience. I have experience with Spring web application framework. My past experience with .Net includes MVC, WCF, Winform, WPF, and Silverlight. I have experience with JavaScript/jQuery and related frameworks such as Dojo, Ext JS, or Prototype, and have worked with other frameworks such as MooTools and others. I have worked with CSS3 and HTML5. .NET has been my major expertise for many years, however I have also used .Net and been responsible for various different types of application development. I have experience with C++, Delphi, Dev C++. My abilities can range from complex solutions that are little or no more work than a beginner would take or produce or simple applications with the right scripting. I have a good understanding of f988f36e3a
